Dear Mr. Melton:

I appreciate your invitation to appear on Sunday, 4 June 1961 from 4 to 4:30 PM with members of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York as panelists on the television news interview program, NEW YORK FORUM. The topic for discussion, you note, will be "What Has the CIA Learned About Communism?"

I have consistently followed my policy of not appearing as a panelist on any public program because of the secret and sensitive nature of the Central Intelligence Agency. This policy is well known to Dr. Frank Stanton and other officials of the CBS. I realize that without CIA representation a panel of members of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York will not be in a position to state accurately what the CIA has learned about communism. You may be interested, in this connection, in an address which I delivered in August 1960 in Detroit at the annual convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, a copy of which is enclosed.

Again, thank you for your invitation which I regrettably must decline.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
